ABOUT US

Welcome to Holistic Wellness, where Maine's top cannabis brands come together under one roof for patients who expect more from their medicine. We're not just a retailer—we're a fully integrated house of brands built on craftsmanship and care.

Because we control our process from seed to shelf, every product we produce reflects the pride, precision, and consistency that define Holistic Wellness. From cultivation to extraction to final packaging, nothing is rushed, nothing is outsourced blindly, and nothing goes on our shelves unless it meets our high standards.

But we don't stop at our own brands. To keep your options fresh and exciting, we partner with select third-party producers who share our commitment to quality. The result? A curated menu that feels intentional, elevated, and always worth exploring—whether you're here for a trusted favorite or hunting for something new.

Our menu rotates daily with fresh drops, exclusive releases, and weekly specials designed to give patients incredible value. We want every visit to feel like there's something new to discover, and every product to deliver exactly the experience you're looking for.

At Holistic Wellness, quality isn't just a promise—it's the foundation of everything we do.
